The Life and Spirit of Mother Addie Lee Miller, a woman of many accomplishments, has lived among us and passed away after 84 years, truly leaving her footprints in the sands of time.

She was born August 16, 1937, in Vallejo, California, the 4th child of the late Elder Emmanuel & Mother Rosie Lee Hodge. She shares her birthday with her twin sister Arlene Patrick. Mother Miller stood out as a child in their family of 9 siblings. She continued to stand out throughout her life. She was a leader among her friends, a leader in the church and a leader in her community.

The roots of the Vallejo Churches of God in Christ started in her parents home in 1934, located at 1840 Florida Street. It led to the establishment of the All Nations Church of God in Christ at 1901 Carolina Street, which was the first COGIC in Vallejo, of which her parents were the founding members under the Pastorship of the late Superintendent R. B Garrett.

At the early age of 5, she and her sister Arlene were given piano lessons from the late Mother Vaughn. From age 10 thru 17 she received piano lessons from the late Mrs Alvina Oliver. As a child at the age of 13 Mother Miller accepted Christ as her personal Lord and Savior and was filled with the Holy Ghost. She and her sisters Arlene & Millie formed the Hodge Sisters and traveled with National Evangelist Elmer Cleveland and Evangelist Ernestine Cleveland Reems to Southern California, Arizona & Texas during the early 50's. Then in 1954 at the age of 17 she and her sisters Millie & Arlene were asked to sing Gospel Hymns for the local radio. While attending High School she also continued to sing and travel 2 weeks out of every year with Bishop B. R. Stewart to the United Nationals Auxiliaries Convention (UNAC) where she met her long time friend Mother Audrey Miles-Williams.

Mother Miller attended McKinley Elementary, Vallejo Jr High & Vallejo High School, graduating in 1955. After graduation she continued her education at Vallejo Junior College (AA Degree), University of California Davis, California State University Sacramento & Southern Illinois University (Bachelor's Degree).

She also worked as a substitute teacher in the Vallejo Unified School District from 1980 to 2000 and Vallejo Adult School from 2000 to 2010.

Elder Freddie Miller & 1st Lady Addie Miller founded the Antioch Church of God In Christ on January 1st 1972 located on Tuolumne Street in Vallejo, CA. He began a month-long revival, the Lord blessed and the membership outgrew the storefront building and moved to its present location 21 Antioch Drive Vallejo, CA. At Antioch COGIC, Mother Miller served as the 1st Lady from 1973 to 2003, Sunday School Superintendent, President of the Women's Department, Organist, Prayer Warrior and as Assistant District Missionary under the leadership of her Aunt, the late Mother Gussie Lee.
